Sergeant Israel F. Goldberg, of the N 9th Infantry, is dead in France, killed York City. in action because he was unwilling to take the "bullet-proof" commission that was offered him at the outbreak of Goldberg was a lawyer at Yonkers, N. Y. He was offered a commission in the Quartermaster's Corps and declined it as "too safe" for his taste. He then enlisted as a private in the 9th Infantry, about to go overseas.

Lieutenant Gerald Provost Thomas, aviation corps, killed in action, lost his life in a combat with five German planes. He was a member of a patrol of six American machines which was flying above the German lines when they were attacked by twenty Fokkers.

Thomas's comrades, "and went at him with their machine guns. Gerald put up a great fight, but the odds were too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much, and the last we saw of him too much and the last

Lieutenant Thomas was the son of New York City.

This department is engaged in separating the sheep of advertising, and of the service which backs up advertising, from the goats-and hanging a bell on the goats. It invites letters describing experiences-pleasant or unpleasant-with sdvertisers, whether they be manufacturers, wholesale houses. retail stores or public service corporations. It will print those letters which seem to show most typically how an advertiser's deeds square with the words of his advertising. Only signed letters, giving the writer's address, will be read-The name will be printed or withheld, as preferred. Address: The Ad-Visor, The Tribune, New York.

A D-VISOR:
In passing a place called "My Store," also called the "Nassan Bargain House," located at 118 Nassau Street, I noticed a one-cent sale which had attracted a large crowd at the windows of the store. After considerable difficulty I got close enough to the window to see that you could buy a shirt for $1.95, and another for an additional one cent, or two for $1.96. Being a constant reader of The Ad-Visor, I have long since ceased bargain hunting, but as I locked at the window it occurred to me that this particular sale certainly needed your attention.

E. G. D.

An investigator from the Tribune Bureau of Investigations called at "My Store" and asked to see the shirts displayed in the windows. The investigator was shown three piles which by no means corresponded with those on display in the window. There were exactly five shirts in the pile containing the size requested by the investigator. From this pile the investigator selected what appeared to be the two best shirts in the lot. The salesman was asked concerning the material from which the shirts were made, and he replied that they were a silk and linen mixture. The shirts were submitted to two experts for examination and appraisal, all identification marks having been removed, with the following results:

1. "Very cheap make; material printed cotton cloth; the facing back of the front is raw and ravelled; the size of one is entirely out of factory rejects and imperfect goods; it is hard to tell exactly what these goods are worth; they have no legitimate sale among

Yet crowds gather in front of the windows of "My Store" and some of the crowd at least expect to buy a shirt for one cent. What Barnum

"My Store" is a type of institution which is fast disappearing from New York. In days gone by we have hung the bell on many of its kind, and they have ceased to be. We now take great pleasure in hanging the bell on "My Store."

A D-VISOR: Have you any information regarding the Empire Tire and Rubber Co. that you could send to me? Stock in this company has been sold around Cleveland, and I am particularly interested in its present condition and possibilities for the future. If you can oblige me I will greatly appreciate it.

The following is quoted from another letter received in the same

During December and January of last year a representative of the New York office of Andrews & Co., who happened to be at their New Haven office, sold to me on persuasion over the telephone fifty (50) shares of Empire Tire and Rubber Co. stock. He dwelt on the integrity of Andrews & Co., and that they wanted me to have some of the stock, as I had not before done any business with them. He said that they had underwritten this stock and that it would be listed on the exchange and was sure to make a big advance in price. He also dwelt on the prosperity of the Empire Tire and Rubber Co., and offered the stock at $8.50 a share (par $10). I was not inclined to entertain the proposition, and he finally said, "Will $110 break you?" and I told him "No." He then said that if I would send $110 they would take my order for fifty (50) shares, giving me three months or longer to pay the balance, which meant to me that if the stock could not be sold within three months at a profit they would carry the loan for a longer period.

Later a New Haven representative called again on the telephone.

Later a New Haven representative called again on the telephone, stating that the stock of the Empire Tire and Rubber Co. was going up, and as they could sell one hundred shares easier than fifty shares they wanted me to take fifty more shares on the same terms, which I did. A few days later the New York representative, who sold me the first fifty (50) shares, called up again and said that the stock would be listed on the market in a few days, and for a quick turnover wanted me to take fifty shares more, which I did.

I wrote Andrews & Co.

I wrote Andrews & Co. several times about the listing of the stock, but never received a reply from them in writing, but did occasionally hear from them over the telephone. They said that owing to circumstances that had arisen there would be some delay in listing of when the ninety (90) days were up they made a demand for payment of the balance, which I refused to make. They then agreed to cancel fifty shares if I would pay the balance. I refused to do this, stating that I did not have the money on account of Liberty bond obligations and insurance obligations, and I felt that the stock had been sold to me on misrepresentation; and that I would insist on my rights. The New Haven representative then said they would be obliged to sell my stock, which would bring four dollars to four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per share, and hold me liable for the balance.

On consultation with a friend of mine who is an attorney, I wrote

On consultation with a friend of mine who is an attorney, I wrote Andrews & Co. May 29 that as the stock had been sold to me on misrepresentations I would not pay the balance, but would sue them for the balance unless they made settlement with me. To this letter I have never received a reply. To-day, however, I have a notice from them stating that they have sold the 150 shares in my name at $4 a share leaving a balance due them of $381.91.

leaving a balance due them of $381.91.

I have a number of letters that I wrote them that I can send you. One of these stated that I wanted to know why the Empire Tire and Rubber Co. stock was listed for sale by other brokers at $4.25. After some time and consequent letters I had a reply stating that quotations of outside brokers were not reliable, as they did not have the stock to sell, anyway. This is one of the few written replies that I have. Most of their replies were over the telephone from New Haven.

W. P. S.

In the latter part of 1916 Andrews & Co. purchased all of the stock of the old Empire Rubber and Tire Company, paying for the same partly in cash and partly in preferred and common stock of a new corporation organized to take the place of the old. We are informed that the transaction left the Empire Rubber and Tire Company with the stock remaining in its treasury, that the Empire company is not offer. no stock remaining in its treasury, that the Empire company with no stock remaining in its treasury, that the Empire company is not offering any stock for sale at this time, and has no interest directly or indirectly in any stock held by Andrews or others. The Empire company has been in business for a number of years, but the slogan "There's money in rubber" should not induce you to invest in Empire stock without carefully investigating all the circumstances surrounding the reorganization of this company.
